APPLE DOOR SYSTEMS PROMOTES SCOTT RAST TO V.P. OF SALES

RICHMOND, VA JANUARY 1, 2012: Apple Door of Richmond, Inc., installing distributors of commercial and residential doors and awnings, has named H. Scott Rast as Vice President of Sales. Mr. Rast has been with the company for 23 years, working his way through the ranks serving in a variety of positions including warehouseman, dispatcher, operations manager, purchasing agent and outside sales representative. For the past 15 years he has served as an outside sales representative specializing in commercial and industrial door and awning products. Mr. Rast holds the all time sales volume record and has received the Million Dollar Club sales award for an unparalleled 10 years straight. "Scott's dedication to the company and its customers sets the standard for all that follow," noted Dan Apple, former owner of Apple Door. He and his wife Teresa and daughter Morgan live in Chesterfield County. His interests include playing softball, bowling and is a member of The Rotary Club of Midlothian.
